SYNOPSIS:

Set in the golden age of television, the star of an afternoon kids' sci-fi serial called "Satellite Sam" is found dead in an apartment with boxes full of dirty secrets and dirtier photographs. When the pieces of his father's death don't add up, his alcoholic son leaps into the limelight on his journey to learn the truth -- about his father, and himself.

CREATORS:

Matt Fraction (writer, co-creator): ODY-C (Image), SATELLITE SAM (Image), HAWKEYE (Marvel), CASANOVA (Image)

Howard Chaykin (artist, co-creator): AMERICAN FLAGG! (First Comics), BLACK KISS and BLACK KISS 2, THE SHADOW (Dynamite)

QUOTES:

“Satellite Sam”... (is) where Fraction and Chaykin have perfected their synergy in an issue that smoothly cruises along even as its story ramps up. It's the showcase of a series that has consistently remained among one of Image Comics' best titles.”

–Jim Johnson, Comic Book Resources

“...”Satellite Sam” offers the best of both creators; a strong family story told through images that excite, that tease and that have so much energy in them that you can't help but get excited to see what's going to happen on each new page.”

–The Best Shots team, Newsarama

“Satellite Sam’ is about as much fun as you can have while feeling like you’re seeing something you shouldn’t, and one of the more involving, implicating comic-reading experiences to be had.”

–Michelle White, Multiversity Comics
